No Clue to War Future

By ROBERT T. GRAY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Creighton W. Abrams has departed Washington for Vietnam, leaving behind virtually no clues as to future U.S. troop plans or to his own military future. "I look for more fighting," was the clipped response of the deputy U.S. commander in Vietnam when asked to forecast the future course of the war. And he dismissed as tersely the speculation that he's in line to succeed Gen. William C. Westmoreland when the U.S. commander steps down to become Army chief of staff by July 2.

"The White House speaks for itself," said the 53-year-old Army general in referring newsmen to a White House refusal to comment on Westmoreland's successor.

His comments came in a plane interview shortly before he flew out of Andrews Air Force Base for Vietnam. Like his two days of secrecy-cloaked talks with President Johnson and other U.S. officials in Washington, details of his return trip weren't disclosed.

The White House has said these talks did not involve Abrams' future and maintains no decision is imminent on war zone manpower changes.

In an interview with The Associated Press, the man in charge of the pacification program in South Vietnam conceded the Viet Cong handed the program a major setback with their Tet offensive. But Ambassador Robert W. Komer, predicted the South Vietnamese will recoup their losses faster than the enemy does its.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee meanwhile introduced a resolution urging President Johnson to create a Cabinet-level post to "deal exclusively with the question of ending the war in Vietnam."

The proposal by the Arkansas Democrat and fervent war-poli-cy critic would not be binding on Johnson if the Senate adopts it.

A committee spokesman said the resolution had been routinely sent to the State Department for comment. One source suggested administration and public reaction to the plan would determine whether committee hearings on it would be scheduled.

Fulbright did not suggest the name of anyone to fill the proposed peace-seeker post, but called for Johnson to appoint "a man of high international stature who would not have been previously identified with any school of thought" on Vietnam.

The appointee would have "sole responsibility for conducting negotiations and full authority to take the initiative in promoting such negotiations," Fulbright said.

In New York, special presidential assistant John P. Roche said U.S. use of tactical nuclear weapons in Vietnam "is inconceivable under the present administration."

The statement by the White House aide and former Brandeis University professor appeared in the administration's strongest rebuttal yet of speculation nuclear weapons might be used if necessary to save embattled Marines at Khe Sanh.

Thinks RFK Gives GOPs a Chance

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Ronald Reagan's political advisers are hoping that Robert F. Kennedy gets off to a fast start in his quest for the Democratic presidential nomination because, as one of them put it, "With Bobby in the picture, we may have a chance."

Two top men in the quiet campaign to win the Republican nomination for the California governor said in separate interviews that if Kennedy looks like a winner when the Republican convention opens Aug. 5, it could put GOP delegates in the market for a new face as an alternative to the current front-runner, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

If Kennedy becomes the Democratic nominee, one Reagan man said, "It will be harder for Republicans to campaign against the Johnson administration. After all, Bobby will have gotten the nomination by campaigning against the Johnson administration himself."

Since the Democratic convention opens three weeks after the Republican convention, the Reagan men are hoping for a strong early showing by Kennedy.

In the interim, the Reagan forces are trying to convince Republican favorite sons to stay off a Nixon bandwagon.

"If the favorite sons hold, it's impossible for a guy to get that nomination on the first ballot," a Reagan adviser said.

He echoed the California governor, who told a Sacramento

Is Seeking Re-election

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Rep. Charles A. Condit, 54, of Helena filed for his second term Wednesday to Position 4 in District 26, which is Lee and Phillips counties. E. Woody Clark, 33, a Forrest City contractor, filed as a Democratic candidate for Position 1 in District 27, composed of St. Francis County. Clark was defeated from the position in 1966 by Rep. O. P. Hammond of Forrest City.

Jobless Orvil Opens Home on Fee Basis

HUNTSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — "Jobless" former Gov. Orvil E. Faubus is expected home in time to open his show-place home here to the public at $1 a head, his wife said Wednesday.

Faubus said recently he was headed "west" job hunting and to complete a book he is writing. His whereabouts has been a guarded family secret.

Mrs. Faubus said they decided to reopen the home while the dogwood trees were in bloom.

news conference Monday: "There are now favorite-son delegations representing more than 700 votes . . . I'm still inclined to think it will be an open convention."

One of those delegations will represent California's 86 votes, pledged to Reagan.

Discussing Nixon, Reagan advisers tend to condemn the former vice president with faint praise.

MAJOR JAMES R. FULLER

NORFOLK, Va. (AHTNC) — during ceremonies at the Armed Forces State College in Norfolk, Va., recently.

Congratulating him is Major General Frank W. Norris, commandant of the staff college.

Major Fuller received the award for outstanding meritorious service in combat operations against hostile forces in Vietnam from December 1966 to December 1967.

Major Fuller, whose wife, Charlotte, is with him at the college, is a student at the college.

The major received a B. S. degree in 1957 from the Oklahoma State University and received his commission through the Reserve Officer's Training Corps program at the university.

viewed former inmates now living in Texas, California and other places and that there testimony added to the report but that the final conclusions came from long term inmates still in prison.

He said he didn't believe so many inmates could testify that they had witnessed murders at the prison and all tell the same story unless it was the truth.

Haley said that all prisons around the country had a high death rate due to violence within the institution.

Asked if he thought the rate in the Arkansas system was higher than normal, he said, "I don't know, but I imagine it is."

He said his main concern with the report was to see that there was no repeat of the prison system's past history. He said evidence indicated murder and severe brutality in the system eased around 1957.

He said bodies buried in the "paupers field" were part of the mismanagement of the past and that unclaimed bodies at the prison were now sent to the University of Arkansas Medical Center in Little Rock in accordance with a 1959 state law.

"The burial story is out of proportion," he said. "It has created a hell of a bad situation in the past few months, since all of this happened at least ten and up to 32 years ago."

The unfavorable publicity for the state resulted partially in the dismissal of Prison Supt. Thomas O. Marton, a penologist who dug up the graves and speculated they were the bodies of murdered inmates.

MISS JANICE KAY BOWDEN

Beech Street Baptist Church in Texarkana will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Janice Kay Bowden to Marshall Wayne Middlebrooks, June 22. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart E. Bowden of Texarkana, Arkansas and the grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Purdie of Texarkana, Texas and the late Mr. Joseph H. Bowden of Hope. The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Middlebrooks, Jr. of Texarkana, Texas and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Dyke Middle-brooks, Sr. of Hope and Mrs. Kyle B. Bangle of Arlington, Va. and the late Mr. Joe S. Marshall of Little Rock, Arkansas. Miss Bowden is a graduate of Arkansas High School. Her fiancé is a Texas High School graduate. Both attended Texarkana Junior College. Miss Bowden is a member of Phi Beta Xi and is employed at the Texarkana Oaklawn Bank. Her fiancé is an employee of Day & Zimmermann. The Rev. Milton E. DuPriest will perform the marriage ceremony.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

CLEAR CHOICE
Dear Helen: I earn money by mowing lawns. I use my Dad's power mower.
My girl gave me some Indian beads and, to match them, I got some sandals and am letting my hair grow to my shoulders.
My Dad says if I don't cut off my hippie-type stuff and cut off my hair—in other words if

I don't turn into a dumb cluck organization man—he will repossess his lawn mower, and also my allowance. What do you say to that?—MOANIN' LOW—NOT MOWIN' LOW
Dear Moanin' Low: I say when money talks, your Dad has the last word. Mow your hair like a "dumb cluck organization man" or you won't be mowin' lawns. —H

Dear Helen: I have a friend who visits me often, always at dinner time. She eats enough for two people. If anything is left on the table, she finishes it off like a living garbage disposer.
She sits around until Mom calls us for dinner and we have to be polite so we ask her to stay—and she always does! How can we get it across that the invitation is just a nice way of saying, "It's time to go home"? —CHEWED OUT
Dear C.O.: You probably can't. Subtlety is lost on eager eaters. Two approaches are: "Would you like to wait in the front room till we're finished?" Or—the best: Your mother's firm, "I'm sure you're wanted home for dinner now—Good-bye!—H

Dear Helen: Glad you started the S.O.S. (Stamp Out Steadying) button offer again.
Serious dating is the worst thing that can happen to two young people. At 16, I met THE girl. At 17, she still is THE girl, but I have just told her I wasn't going to date her steadily any more, not because I don't think a lot of her, but because we were getting too serious.
If I had dated other girls and she had dated other guys, we would have played it cool until after high school. But we got ahead of ourselves because of a society that told us to go steady.
Teen-agers don't have to give their ex-steady up for good, but if they are wise, they'll play the field. —A DUM-DUM FINALLY WISED UP

Dear Helen: Until a few months ago, I was a staunch member of the S.O.S. club. Then I met the most wonderful boy in the world. I realize going steady has its faults and I can see why lots of kids are against it. But like many other things, it's a matter of what is right for the individual. I have benefitted from going steady. For a change, I put someone else's feeling before mine. I've found happiness in getting to know and understand one person. We aren't about to lose our heads.
I'm not trying to convert oth-

SHOVER SPRING HD CLUB MEETS

A meeting of the Shover Springs 4-H Club was called to order by Lanette Arrington on March 19 at the Fellowship Hall. The opening song, "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," was led by Sue Dillon.

Sheryl Bright, secretary, called the roll and was answered by 10 members. She also read the minutes of the last meeting and led in repeating the Lord's Prayer. Don Middlebrooks was welcomed as a new member.

The old and new business was discussed, including the club's treasury account, the club project, and the door prize. Paula Poindexter gave the devotion from John 1. Sheryl Bright demonstrated "crystallizing bottles."

Guests were: Mrs. Aaron Skinner, Mrs. E. O. Bright, David Poindexter, and Dennis Arrington. Brownies and cold drinks were served to the group of 16 by the Brights.

ers, but how can something that has worked so well for my boy friend and me be all bad?—C. F.B.

Dear C.: "Going steady" isn't all bad! For kids like you—sensible, mature, AGREED—it's a lovely relationship. What is bad, according to some 10,000 teens so far, is "The System" which forces steadying on those who would still rather mix than match. As I've said before, every S.O.S. button-wearer will someday be a dropout. S.O.S. isn't aimed at breaking up steadies. It simply gives the "not yet ready's" a choice. —H

ROCKY MOUND HD CLUB MEETS

The Rocky Mound Extension Homemakers Club met in the home of Mrs. H. H. Higginson Thursday, March 21 for their regular meeting.

The president, Mrs. Floyd Pharris called the meeting to order. The thought of the month was "If you haven't tried it, don't knock it." The group sang "Count Your Many Blessings" led by Mrs. Higginson.

Mrs. Higginson's devotional was taken from Matthew 26:57-63. The Lord's Prayer was then repeated in unison.

The eye-opener, A Bed Caddy, was by Mrs. Crawford. The lesson, Health, was given by different leaders. Mrs. Messer, "How to Care for Family Diseases"; Mrs. Higginson, Diabetic Heart and Circulatory diseases was explained by their agent, Miss Delores McBride. Mrs. Byers gave a book quiz in which all members took part.

Roll call by the secretary, Mrs. Barham, was answered by nine members with "A Problem I Have." Mrs. Barham read the minutes and treasurer's report. Mrs. Cecil Bittle showed slides of beautiful wild flowers taken from Arkansas, most of them in Hempstead County.

The meeting was closed by repeating collect, followed by delicious refreshments of Easter cake, salad and punch. The hostess served nine members and two guests, Mrs. Bittle and Mrs. Hollis.

Next meeting will be in April in the home of Mrs. Pickard.

KITCHEN SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT

A kitchen shower for Miss Donna Kay Cochran of Texarkana, bride-elect of Mack McLarty, was given by Mrs. Herbert Stephens with Mrs. L. D. Springer, co-hostess, on Tuesday morning, March 26 at the Stephens home.

The bride-elect was attired in a colorful spring suit. She was presented a clever kitchen corsage, as was her mother, Mrs. Virgil Cochran of Hot Springs, her fiancé's mother, Mrs. Frank McLarty, and his grandmother, Mrs. Tom McLarty.

Yellow irises and daisies decorated the living room, where 20 guests assembled to write favorable recipes for the honored guest. Daffodils centered the table in the dining room, where refreshments were served.

In addition to members of Chapter AE, P.E.O., there were several guests from out of town. They included Mrs. Cochran, mother of the bride-elect, Misses Maureen and Ruth Cochran of Texarkana, aunts of the honoree, and Mrs. F. C. Stephens and Mrs. Harold Stephens, both of Belleville.

INFORMAL PARTY FOR MISS COCHRAN

An informal morning party for bride-elect Miss Donna Kay Cochran of Texarkana was held in the home of Mrs. Lloyd Spencer. Miss Cochran, who will become the bride of Mack McLarty in June, was attired in a rose linen dress and had a white corsage.

Spring flowers were placed at vantage points throughout the home. In the dining room the tables were centered with a yellow and white arrangement of Dutch irises, mums, and daffodils. Cold drinks and snacks were served to 37, including Mrs. Virgil Cochran of Hot Springs, the honoree's mother, Misses Ruth and Maureen Cochran, her aunts, and Mrs. William Dudeney, Jr., all of Texarkana, and Mrs. Watson White of Prescott. Assisting the hostess in serving were Mrs. E. J. Whitman, Mrs. Thomas Hays, Mrs. Thomas Hays, Jr., Mrs. Leonard Ellis, Miss Diane Ellis, and Mrs. Ray Lawrence.

The seaweed, Irish moss, is edible and is used as the basis of soups and desserts.

Coming, Going

Mrs. L. A. Green and Mrs. W. A. Franklin, both of Gallatin, Tenn., have been visiting their sister, Mrs. R. D. Franklin.

Mrs. Frank Baggett of Shreveport visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Reltig, two days last week.

Art Robertson, Mrs. Marian Long, and Eddie Holland, all of Little Rock, were in Hope Tuesday night for a meeting with the Hempstead County Republican Women.

Alert Woman Fells Robbery

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — When a robber entered a suburban bank office Tuesday and ordered teller Mary Young to fill a sack with currency, she did so — deftly slipping a tear gas cartridge in with the money.

Officers arrested two men and two women fifteen minutes later, and said some of them had tear gas on their clothing. One of the men, they said, suffered tear gas burns and had been crying.

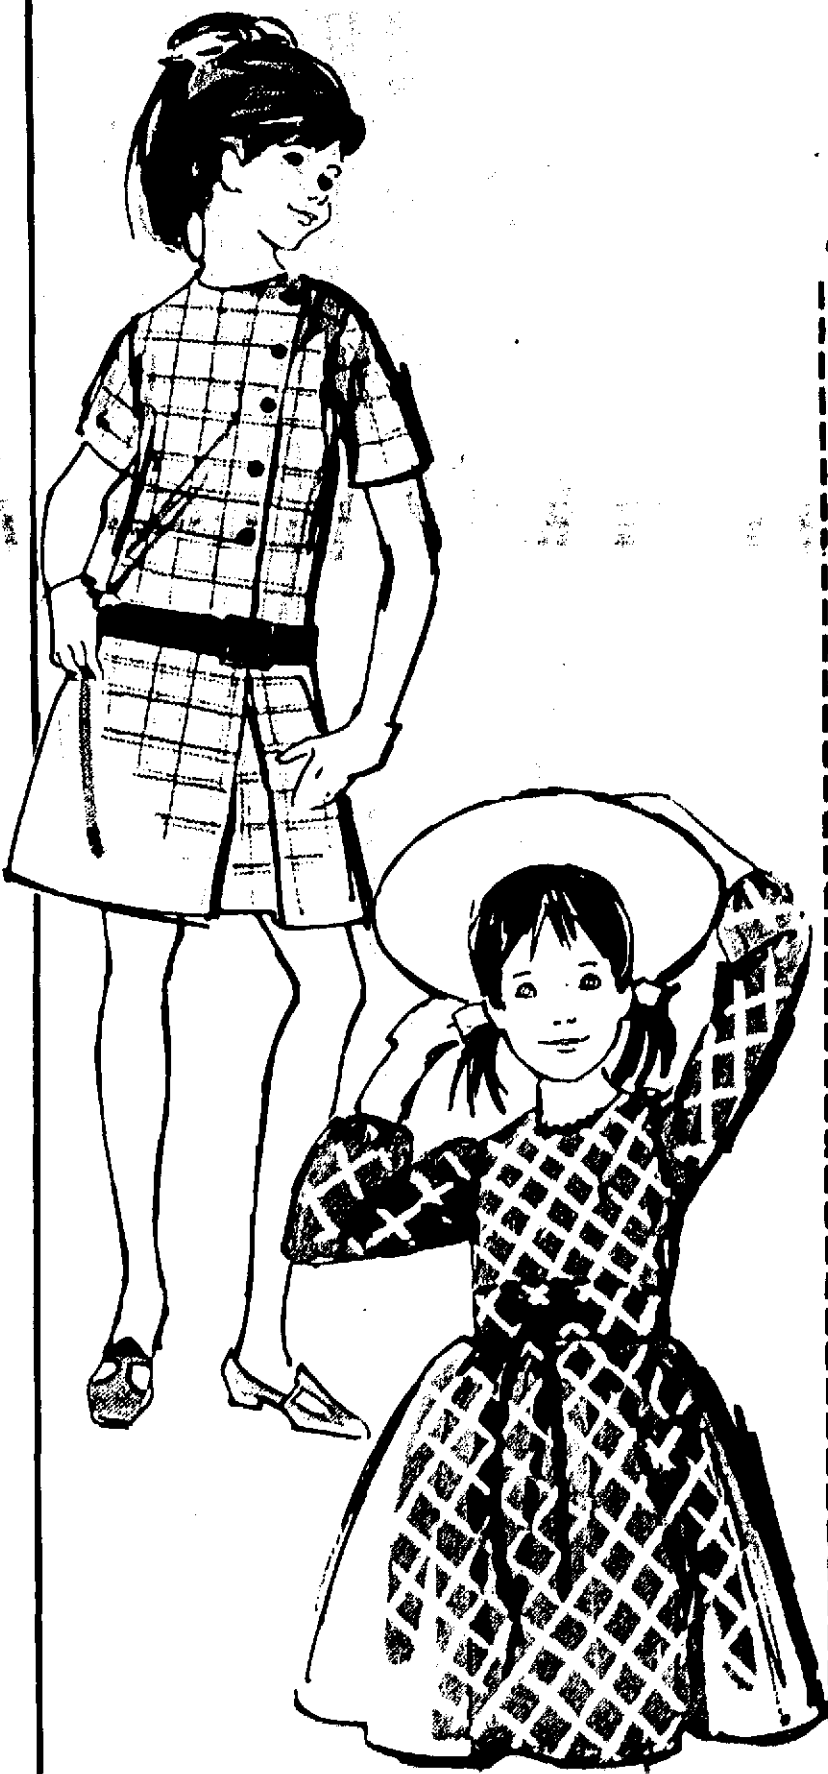

The Federal Bureau of Investigation later brought bank robbery charges against Thomas Theodore Pacheco, 27, and Theodore Samuel Pacheco Jr., 30, both of Salt Lake City. The FBI said $1,548 taken from the bank was recovered.

Sikes Tired But Is the Meet Hero

By F. T. MACFEELEY
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — "I'm tired, so tired," Dan Sikes said on the eve of today's Greater Jacksonville Open Golf Tournament.

The hometown hero's actions belied his words. Sikes had just opened the tournament activities by shooting the lowest score in the pro-am preliminary at 67—five strokes below regulation for the toughened 7,200-yard Deerwood Club course.

Sikes, who won last year's Jacksonville Open with a nine-under-par 279, said he played the best golf of his life when he won the Citrus Open at Orlando two weeks ago. He was 14 under par in that tournament, but figures 10 under will be good enough to take this one.

In addition to his second straight victory at his home course, Sikes will be shooting for the Florida Governor's Cup based on the total scores in all four tournaments in the state.

He and England's Tony Jacklin are tied at 837 after play in Doral, Citrus and Pensacola tournaments. Bob Murphy, former National Amateur champion and former University of Florida golfer, stands 841. Ray Floyd is at 842.

Tom Weiskopf would have been in great shape for the trophy if he had not passed up the Pensacola Tournament last week. He was second in both the Doral and Citrus.

Arnold Palmer, Nicklaus and Gary Player of South Africa—the Big Three of golf—are reunited in competition in this tournament, which they'll use as a warmup for the Masters two weeks off.

Most of the other top golfers on the PGA circuit also are after this one.

Davis Cup Hopes Are Revived

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — It's nine months until the Davis Cup Challenge Round, but Uncle Sam is getting his appetite whetted again.

The Yanks, it seems, are always winning the Davis Cup in the spring.

The newest fever is inspired by Arthur Ashe's victory over Spain's Manuel Santana in the Garden Challenge Trophy Tennis Tournament Wednesday night. The score was 5-7, 6-3, 7-5.

Not only that, but Clark Graebner, Ashe's Davis Cup teammate, also moved into the men's semifinals on a 10-8, 7-5 triumph over Yugoslavia's Zeljko Franulovic and there are a pair of other Americans in the wings.

Ashe and Graebner clash in the semifinals Friday. The other semifinals will be decided tonight when Stan Smith of Pasadena, Calif., plays Herbert FitzGibbon of Garden City, N.Y., in one match and top-seeded Roy Emerson face Holland's Tom Okker in the other.

Billie Jean King, the women's favorite, plays Winnie Shaw of Scotland tonight in the women's quarter-finals. The winner goes against the survivor of the match between Nancy Richey of San Angelo, Tex., and Julie Heldman of New York.

Second-seeded Ann Haydon Jones of England beat Francoise Durr of France 6-2, 6-4 to go into the semis against Judy Tegart of Australia, 8-1, 6-4 winner over Kathy Harter of Seal Beach, Calif.

76ers Win Bulls Get a Reprieve

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Chicago Bulls won a late reprieve, the Philadelphia 76ers saved themselves from an embarrassing predicament and the Detroit Pistons kept right on killing the giant.

The first round of the National Basketball Association playoffs provided surprises all around Wednesday night when Chicago beat Los Angeles 104-98 in the Western Division, and Philadelphia outlasted New York 138-132 in double overtime and Detroit took Boston 109-98 in the East.

Champs Bow to Yankees in the 13th

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
Everybody's been tagging Boston pitching this spring, but the Red Sox won't turn the other cheek. Not by a long shot.

Beanballs flew at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Wednesday as the American League champs bowed to the New York Yankees 4-2 for their 13th setback in 19 exhibition games.

Dick Williams, the Red Sox' pilot, and Coach Eddie Popowski were ejected in an eighth-inning rhabarb with umpire Frank Umont after Boston pitcher Lee Stange clipped the Yanks' Roy White in the back with a fast ball.

Jerry Stephenson, the Red Sox' starter, had hit Bob Cox with a pitch in the sixth and the Yankees' Dale Spier had fired a pitch over Joe Foy's head in the top of the eighth. When White was plunked leading off the bottom of the inning, Umont warned Williams, then tossed him out.

The same clubs staged a free-for-all last June at Yankee Stadium after Boston ace Jim Lonborg and New York's Tim Lilliston took turns low-bridging the hitters.

While the Red Sox' troubles continued, St. Louis' world champions buried the Chicago White Sox 8-2 at Sarasota, Fla., for their 12th victory in 18 starts. Lou Brock's second spring homer paced a 17-hit Cardinal attack.

At Orlando, Fla., Harmon Killebrew's 11th inning homer gave the Minnesota Twins a 1-0 victory over Baltimore. Killebrew blasted his fifth exhibition homer off Gene Brabender, the fourth Baltimore pitcher. Jim Merritt, Al Worthington, Ron Perranoski and Jim Roland stopped the Orioles on six hits.

Sam McDowell yielded just one hit in a six-inning stint as the Cleveland Indians trimmed California 7-3 at El Paso, Tex. Philadelphia blanked Los Angeles 4-0 at Clearwater, Fla., behind the six-hit pitching of Chris Short and Gary Wagner.

San Francisco shelled Ken Holtzman for eight runs in the first two innings and held off the Chicago Cubs 10-6 at Scottsdale, Ariz. Atlanta broke through teammate Denny Lemaster for five eighth inning runs and a 5-3 victory over Houston at West Palm Beach, Fla.

Oakland downed Detroit 4-2 at Lakeland, Fla., and Cincinnati edged the New York Mets 5-4 in a night game at St. Petersburg, Fla.

The Braves were stunned by the announcement that outfielder Rico Carty, a .305 lifetime hitter, will undergo extensive tests to determine if he has tuberculosis. Carty, 27, has lost weight and complained of feeling run down in recent weeks.

Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' rookie second baseman, and San Francisco catcher Dick Dietz also came up with distressing ailments.

An eye examination disclosed Ferraro is suffering from glaucoma but a Fort Lauderdale doctor said he should be able to continue playing. Dietz was rushed from Scottsdale, Ariz., to San Francisco for tests after Chicago's victory kept the Lakers from taking an impregnable 3-0 lead in the best-of-7 series and put Los Angeles ahead 2-1 instead.

Philadelphia's late heroics kept New York from pulling ahead in their rugged series, which returns to New York Saturday. The 76ers are now ahead two games to one.

And, ah, the Pistons. To have predicted only a week or so ago that Detroit could have taken a 2-1 lead over the Celtics at this stage would have been foolhardy. But Detroit, which beat Boston only twice during the regular season, already has matched that total in the playoffs.

Even more remarkable, the triumph came at Boston where the Pistons rallied from a 52-48 halftime deficit and outscored the Celtics 33-15 in the third period. Dave Bing and Eddie Miles each scored 10 points.

Then Jimmy Walker took over and scored 14 points in the final period to keep the Celtics away. Bing led the Pistons with 27 points while John Havlicek had 23 for Boston.

The Knicks fought back from 10 points behind in the fourth period to take a lead near the end of regulation time, but a basket by Chet Walker sent the game into overtime. Again New York took the lead and seemed safely ahead by three points with little time left.

But Hal Greer stole a pass and scored with 16 seconds left, then stole the in-bounds pass and Matt Guokas was fouled with six seconds left. He made the free throw and the game went "into" another overtime. Walker put the 76ers ahead for good and scored six points in the final extra period.

Cazzie Russell scored 40 points for the Knicks while Walker had 32 for Philadelphia. Flynn Robinson's 41 points, 20 coming in the second quarter, led the Bulls to their triumph. It was only the second time this season Chicago has beaten the Lakers. Jerry West had 32 points for Los Angeles.

The Braves cut nine players, including former bonus baby Dave Nicholson, whose 175 strikeouts in 1963 stand as the major league record. Shortstop Andre Rodgers and catcher Manny Sanguill were sent down by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

BOWIE, Md. (AP) — Garth Patterson rode four winners at Bowie race track Wednesday.

A SCENE seldom seen is Jim Ryan losing a race. Villanova senior Dave Patrick turned the trick last year, beating the Kansan in a half-mile duel.

Boston Big Wheels Are Not Worried

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (AP) — The Boston Red Sox have been struggling this spring without Jim Lonborg. Carl Yastrzemski has been having trouble with his timing, as usual.

Tony Conigliaro is striking out too much for comfort. Only George Scott and Rico Petrocelli have been massaging the ball.

Manager Dick Williams keeps telling visitors he isn't worried because his pennant winners are under .500 in the exhibition games. They were so-so last spring, too, and look what happened.

"It doesn't bother me if they downgrade us," said Williams. "Let everybody else worry about us. We'll manage somehow."

"Sure, it's tough to try to replace a man like Lonborg but you have to do your best with what you have. Not until I see Jim on the mound, throwing a ball, will I take interest in him as a pitcher again."

That is Williams' way of saying he doesn't have the faintest idea when to expect help from Lonborg, the 22-game winner of 1967's Impossible Dream. The cast is off the left knee that required surgery after a skating accident but he is far from ready.

The pitching which ranked eighth in the league last year, even with Lonborg's big season, casts serious doubt on Boston's ability to repeat.

"If I had to name a rotation now, I'd say Jose Santiago, Gary Waslewski, Dick Ellisworth and Ray Culp," said Williams, "but that is subject to change. We probably won't need a fifth starter in early season."

Williams named most of the other men on the staff as candidates for the fifth job. Men who have seen the Sox play all their spring games say Jerry Stephenson, Carry Roggenburk and Darrell Brandon have done the best work. Gary Bell has been bombed, especially in one effort against Chicago.

John Wyatt, the mainstay in the bullpen, has been having problems this spring, but everybody expects him to come

Bobcats to Host Track Meet Today

By RALPH ROUNTON

This afternoon the Hope High tracksters play host to the season's second home meet at the Hope track.

In the top listings in the state this week, hurdler Buzz Andrews made the Tope Ten easily in both the 120 highs and the 180 lows. Buzz is tied for the state's fourth position in the highs with Tim Toliver of AAA Little Rock Hall in a time of 15.2.

Buzz' time of 15.2 is very good for this point of the year, and he has run that time twice already. If the weather keeps improving, Andrews should have no problem in bettering 15 flat this year.

In the 180 lows Buzz is tied for seventh in a time of 20.9, which he ran in the Fairview Relays last Saturday. In that Fairview meet Hope finished a strong fourth in a 17-team field, and one HHS school record was broken.

Junior James Rowe, continually improving in his forte, the mile run, lowered his week-old mark of 4:50.1 down to 4:47 with a strong finish. Since the season began, Rowe has also begun running the 880 along with Alan Phillips, providing the thinclads with a stronghold in the distance events.

The HHS golfers had a relatively bad day at Magnolia on Tuesday afternoon, coming out on the short end of a 16½-1½ score.

Magnolia's Sid Moore, the defending district champion, combined with Perry Baucum to take 7½ points, while Danny Reyenga and Ralph Rounton of Hope earned the 1½. Mike Rogers and Jerry Alford of Magnolia shut out Hope's Terry Hairr and John Kemp 9-0.

With a record now of 1-2, the golfers are now beginning to get down to normal, but it could be as long as the post-season events before they really get to their full potential. Meanwhile the team is undergoing strenuous practicing under Coach Jim Jordan.

The team's next match will be tomorrow afternoon, with the locals traveling to Camden to take on the Panthers at the Camden Golf and Country Club. The match is scheduled to begin at 1:30 p.m.

RESULTS
Moore, Magnolia, dftd. Rounton, Hope, 2-1; Baucum, Magnolia dftd. Reyenga, Hope, 3-0; Moore and Baucum, Magnolia, dftd. Rounton and Reyenga, Hope, 2½-½.

Rogers, Magnolia, dftd. Hairr, Hope, 3-0; Alford, Magnolia, dftd. Kemp, Hope, 3-0; Rogers and Alford, Magnolia, dftd. Hairr and Kemp, Hope, 3-0.

Team totals: Magnolia 16½, Hope 1½.

around when the bell rings. At "Sparky" Lyle and Brandon figure to be his relief helpers.

"Barring injury we're pretty well set with the rest of the club," said Williams. "We have a real strong bench and a set line-up."

"I don't see how any changes could be made unless possibly third base or catcher. Fortunately we were able to play a lot of different combinations last year and still won."

Williams is willing to trade Ken Harrelson, who hit a bonanza last year after being released by Kansas City. Harrelson can't win a regular job with this club. If anybody offers a pitcher, catcher—or maybe just anything—Harrelson can be had.

There is no room in the outfield with Yastrzemski in left, Reggie Smith in center and Conigliaro in right. Jose Tartabull and possibly George Springs, drafted from Pittsburgh, are the spares.

Conigliaro, coming back from a serious injury, wears a special batting helmet with an ear flap to protect the cheekbone fractured by a pitched ball last August.

Scott, a superior first baseman, has been overpowering pitchers in the exhibitions. Mike Andrews will be at second, Petrocelli at short and a slimmer-down Joe Foy at third. Dalton Jones is competition for Foy and Jerry Adair for Andrews.

Elston Howard, eager to prove his batting slump of last year was temporary, came to camp in great shape as the established No. 1 catcher. It all depends on his hitting.

The Red Sox picked up Gene Oliver from the Phillies to back up Howard and also fill in as an extra outfielder if needed. Russ Gibson probably will be the third catcher.

"I hope everybody picks up 10th again," said Williams. I know it is hard to win two in a row. In this league you can finish anywhere from first to seventh.

Hayes Gets $440,000 From Diego

SAN DIEGO (AP) — With acquisition of Elvin Hayes of the San Diego Rockets, the National Basketball Association wins an important round in the fight with the new American Basketball Association for talent.

Houston's "Big E" signed a contract Wednesday with the NBA Rockets. Although terms of the "multiple-year" pact weren't announced, it is believed to involve about $440,000 over a four-year period.

The Rockets moved quickly to sign the 6-foot-9½ performer, named College Player-of-the-Year. They won a coin flip Monday with Baltimore for the right to make the NBA's No. 1 draft selection.

The Houston Mavericks have draft rights to Hayes in the ABA. But the 22-year-old star was seated at the Rocket bargaining table while the Mavericks made a $500,000 offer Tuesday.

Hayes said earlier he wanted $300,000 for three years. The 235-pound Hayes reiterated at a news conference that he chose San Diego because he wants to "play against the best, and that's the NBA. I really like the city and I'm very happy that San Diego drafted me."

Next comes round two of the NBA-ABA signing battle. It involves the Baltimore Bullets, last place team in the NBA's Eastern Division. The signing of Hayes frees the Bullets to seek the No. 2 choice, Seattle will draft third.

Brave Slugger Undergoing Tests for TB

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Atlanta slugger Rico Carty, confined to the Southeast Florida Tuberculosis Hospital near here, starts a series of extensive physical examinations today to determine if he has tuberculosis.

The 27-year-old left fielder entered the facility Wednesday night after physicians have examined him and the Braves announced it was likely he had the disease.

A spokesman for the hospital said the full staff of seven doctors, four surgeons and various consultants will consider Carty's case. He said there was no indication how long the tests might take.

Meanwhile, other Atlanta players and team officials were being tested to determine if they had contracted the disease. However, trainer Harvey Stone said it was a precautionary measure and that Carty's illness may be pneumonia.

"If he's really got it, he's certain to be out for the year," said Paul Richards, vice president of the Braves.

Carty had reported for training about 10 pounds under his playing weight of 200 pounds, recently had complained of "being weak and just not feeling right," and had lost another six pounds at camp.

He played in a weekend exhibition series at Atlanta, but he did not play in Monday and Tuesday's games. In the exhibition season he was batting .316. Better than his .305 average in four years in the big leagues. He hit .330 in 1964, .310 in 1965, .326 in 1966, and .255 in

Looks As If Nobody Wants to Win Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It looks like nobody wants to win the National Hockey League's West Division title.

Given consecutive chances to move into first place in the expansionist West, Los Angeles lost twice, the latest a 5-3 setback to Minnesota Wednesday night.

Philadelphia, tied in points but with two more games to play than LA, isn't making much headway either. The Flyers lost 3-0 to St. Louis Wednesday.

In other games, Pittsburgh kept its flickering West playoff hopes alive with a 7-4 comeback victory over Oakland and Toronto shut out Montreal 6-0 in the only East game played.

Los Angeles jumped in front twice against Minnesota but the North Stars kept coming back, finally taking the lead on a pair of second-period goals by Wayne Connelly.

The loss left LA with 71 points—the same number as Philadelphia—and only one regular season game remaining.

Glenn Hall's 73rd career shutout in 1967 when he suffered a shoulder injury.

If Carty cannot play this season, he probably will be replaced by Tommie Ajron, Sandy Valdespino, Tito Francona or Mike Lum, a rookie from Hawaii.

Third Period Sports Spell Success

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Third-period sports spelled success in the American Basketball Association playoffs Wednesday night.

The Pittsburgh Pipers opened an 11-point lead with a scoring burst at 9:19 of the quarter and went on to trounce Indiana 133-114, eliminating the Pacers 3-0 in their best-of-5 Eastern Division semifinal series.

Minnesota took a 2-1 lead in the other Eastern semifinal. The Muskies hit 10 quick points early in the third to increase a 62-59 halftime lead to a 70-63 margin and go on to a 116-107 triumph over Kentucky.

New Orleans outscored Denver 12-0 at the start of the third to break a 46-46 halftime tie en route to a 105-93 lead and a 2-0 margin in their Western Division semifinal.

Dallas already has eliminated Houston in the Western Division semifinal.

In the National Basketball Association playoffs, Philadelphia edged New York 138-132 in two overtimes, Detroit topped Boston 109-98 and Chicago outlasted Los Angeles 104-98.

Art Heyman collected 18 of his 28 points in the third quarter when Pittsburgh outscored the Pacers 48-27 and broke the game open. Charlie Williams poured in 34 and Connie Hawkins 29 for the Pipers. Fred Lewis led Indiana with 32.

Minnesota led only 62-59 at halftime, but Les Hunter hit two quick baskets and Irv Innggers two more and the Muskies ran up an 84-69 advantage after three periods.

Hunter finished with 38 and Mel Daniels 31 for Minnesota. Kentucky's Louie Dampier scored 32 and Darel Carrier 30. Jimmy Jones scored 22 points for New Orleans, which made the most of its foul shots—hitting 37 of 43 while Denver converted 17 of 24. Willie Murrell paced Denver with 21.

out stalled the Flyers, who have three more games to play. It was the first victory this season for St. Louis over Philadelphia, and moved the Blues closer to a playoff berth.

St. Louis could have locked up fourth place if Oakland had knocked off Pittsburgh and, for a while, it looked like the Seals would oblige. John Brennaman scored two first-period goals and Oakland took a 3-1 lead.

But veterans Ab McDonald and Leo Bolvin each hit twice as the Penguins came back. The victory left Pittsburgh three points back of St. Louis. The Blues have three games to play and Pittsburgh two.

Murray Oliver scored twice and assisted on another goal as Toronto thumped Montreal. It was a meaningless game for both teams since Montreal already has clinched the East Division title and Toronto is destined to finish fifth.

Picked But Pay Too Low

CUMMINS PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP)—William Leeke, 35, a penologist serving as director of the South Carolina prison system, is the man the state Board of Correction wants to hire as commissioner of correction.

But Leeke is reluctant to take a cut in pay to accept the $15,000 a year post.

As added inducement, the board Wednesday authorized its chairman, John H. Haley of Little Rock to offer Leeke a house and prison commodities.

The board also named acting Prison Supt. Victor Urban to the post permanently. He stepped into the post last month when Thomas O. Murton was fired.

Haley said Leeke would have to be provided a house off Cummins Prison Farm because it wouldn't be fair to Urban or Leeke for Leeke to live there.

Haley said Wednesday night that he had not contacted Leeke about the additional offer, but laughingly said the candidate hasn't seen Arkansas under favorable circumstances yet.

Haley explained that Leeke was at Cummins the night the board met five and a half hours and decided to fire Murton.

On another visit to Arkansas, Leeke was taken to the Top of the Rock Club in Little Rock —two hours after it was raided
by Alcoholic Beverage Control Director Harrell Hughes and Enforcement Officer Emil Urban.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—California's Paul Rojas is a slight favorite to defeat Enrique Higgins of Colombia tonight in their 15-round fight for the World Boxing Association version of the vacant featherweight championship.

The non-televized scrap, which shapes up as a sluggers' match between two boxers who have never been knocked off their feet, is billed to fill the gap provided when Mexico's Vicente Saldivar retired.

While the WBA and California sanctioned tonight's bout as a title contest, many boxing bodies offer no such recognition. Howard Winstone of Wales is acclaimed as the 126-pound ruler in some areas.

Higgins, 25, whose boxing has been confined to Colombia and Venezuela, has won 30 bouts, scoring 23 knockouts and losing twice. Rojas, also 25, has won 33, lost only one, to Saldivar here in 1965, and stopped 25 opponents.

SHOWBEAT
By DICK KLEINER
NEA Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—It was raining at Trancas Lakes—about a freeway hour west of Hollywood—so the company shooting "The Illustrated Man" was out of action.

In a trailer parked just off the dirt road which was fast becoming a mudslide, Rod Steiger was just sitting. Ray Bradbury was visiting and Rod and Ray were talking politics.
Bradbury wrote "The Illustrated Man," but he has no connection with the film. In fact, he hadn't even read the script —and said he wouldn't, unless they asked him. He and Steiger are friends, though, so he often comes by to watch the shooting.

The logistics of this film are tremendous because throughout it, Steiger is supposed to be tattooed from his neck to his feet. Because of the time it takes to make him up with the tattoos, the shooting schedule is a nightmare.

"It takes three hours to do these," Steiger said, holding up his hands to show the intricate designs covering the palms, the fingers and the backs of the hands. "It takes a day-and-a-half to do a torso. It takes three days for the whole body, neck to toe. That's with six guys working on me."

"At first, I felt like an emperor, with those six guys around for about 37 minutes, that is. Then I felt like a lousy private."

Steiger's life is governed, these days, by the tattoos. He can't wash or take a shower. He even has to watch how he brushes his teeth—otherwise the water will trickle down a finger and obliterate a design.

"I made a deal with the studio," he says. "They have to supply me with linens and towels while I'm in this make-up.
I wake up in the morning and the sheet is tattooed."

Art director Joel Schiller experimented with everything he could think of, trying to get a make-up that lasted longer, yet still photographed like a tattoo. He considered—and rejected —decals and painted body stockings. He tested different kinds of paints and wound up with one that is ordinarily used in the silk screen process.

"With some people," Steiger says, "this make-up lasts a lot longer than it does with me. I've always had a problem with make-up. Actually, I've always had a skin problem—I had bad acne as a kid. Even today, my skin seems to drink up make-up. I put some on in the morning and it's gone by lunch."

So far, though, he's taking the punishment with good grace.
He thinks it's a good part in a good picture, so worth the effort. This is his second straight picture with director Jack Smight. They already have a winner in their previous one,
"No Way To Treat A Lady", that could easily be an Oscar nomination for Rod next year.

If he wins with "In the Heat Of the Night" this year, as many expect, he could be on his way to two in a row. Many people believe he is America's finest movie actor, and the question is often asked: If you win the Oscar three times running, do you get to retire it?

"I'd like very much to win the Oscar," Rod says. "It would be a great honor, and would also help to get a bigger variety of parts. Even though I've been getting good ones lately, I'm always aware that there is nothing as insecure as success.
After every fat period, there is a fallow period."

There is no sign of fallowness for Rod Steiger yet. After "The Illustrated Man," he does a romantic film with Claire Bloom in England. And then comes a big one—he'll play
Napoleon in his last years, with Peter O'Toole as Wellington.

Democratic Governors Like Kennedy

By BRIAN SULLIVAN
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — A survey of the nation's Democratic governors showed scant support today for either Sen. Robert F. Kennedy or Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

An Associated Press survey found that 14 of the 24 Democratic governors occupying state house chairs express support for President Johnson for re-nomination. Only one—Philip H. Hoff of Vermont—is unequivocally for Kennedy. One other—Harold E. Hughes of Iowa—may be leaning toward Kennedy or McCarthy.

Six of the governors appear uncommitted. Two others stand apart from the party. Hoff stands alone among the Democratic governors in his break with President Johnson. "I have concluded," Hoff said last Friday, "that the only way in which our potentially disastrous national course can be arrested is through a change in our national leadership."

Hoff said he welcomed McCarthy's candidacy, but maintained that Kennedy "offers the most realistic possibility for the people of America if we are to achieve the national regeneration that is so desperately needed."

Hughes, a close friend of the President and chairman of the Democratic governors, said he will continue to support Johnson until it becomes clear the President refuses to change his Vietnam policies.

"I may reach the point," Hughes said, "of totally and conclusively breaking with the current administration. I have reached a decision that a policy of guns and butter is not feasible."

The Iowa governor, who is running for Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper's seat, said he's keeping an open mind about Kennedy and McCarthy.

Firm support for the President comes from governors in such states as Texas, his home state, and from Tennessee, West Virginia and Delaware.

Hawaii's Gov. John A. Burns said he's "pretty sure that Hawaii will continue to support the

LBJ Pushing for Defeat of Combine

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration reportedly is pushing hard for defeat of a proposal before the Senate that would combine a 10 per cent income tax surcharge with a $6 billion spending cut.

Senate Democratic leaders hoped to defeat the proposal—an amendment to the administration's excise-tax bill—in time to assure final action on the House-passed excise measure by today.

That timetable would pave the way for getting the main bill to President Johnson for his signature before excise taxes on cars and telephones expire at midnight Sunday.

In the House, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the Ways and Means Committee said President Johnson's proposed tourist tax could be revived if the administration couples it with some kind of tax on imports.

The committee approved a bill imposing a 5 per cent tax on

Loses Game, One Player

EASTON, Pa. (AP) — The Northampton County prison basketball team lost their game Monday night and also lost one of their players.

Prison guards said Daniel Delker, 19, serving a term for larceny, fled as the team returned from the Jewish Community Center, where the prisoners lost 57-47 to the center's team.

airline tickets for all flights abroad and reduced for 18 months the duty-free exemption for returning travelers from $100 to $10.

Johnson's original tourist tax proposal, held up by the committee, is designed to help combat the balance of payments deficit. It involves a graduated levy on daily spending outside the Western Hemisphere. A co-sponsor of the taxes-spending curb amendment said the administration is working hard against the proposal.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., said administration forces "were wavering for a while and I couldn't find out where they stood. But I called one of their top officials and he told me they were definitely against it."

Williams added he had always felt the administration would fight the spending cut.

In addition to any administration opposition to the budget slash, the surcharge part of the amendment is likely to run into trouble in the House if it clears the Senate.

House Ways and Means Committee members, who normally handle tax legislation before the Senate, have made it clear they are against the Senate taking initial action on a revenue proposal.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., planned to propose an amendment today that would impose a 20 per cent extra tax on the income of any U.S. firm doing business with a Communist nation supplying material to North Vietnam.

In Wednesday voting, the Senate adopted 55 to 31 an amendment by Sen. Ernest F. Hollings, D-S.C., to set up a system of textile import quotas.

The President had dispatched five Cabinet officers to Capitol Hill last fall to speak out against such a proposal.

Kiwanis Minstrel; Fishing Notes On
Telephone Line

You are reminded, if that be necessary, Hope Kiwanis Club opens its 25th annual Minstrel and Variety Show on the City Hall stage at 8 o'clock tonight (Thursday), with a repeat Friday night.

This is always a good entertainment, besides which you find satisfaction in the knowledge that the proceeds of the show go to youth activities, one of the oldest and ablest voluntary public works in our community.

A quote from the memorial program printed for the 1968 show:

"More than $35,000 has been expended by the Hope Kiwanis Club on boys' and girls' youth projects, activities and recreational programs in Hope during the past 25 years. The club is grateful to the Hope community for support of the Kiwanis shows through the years."

You've seen our pictures—in both black-and-white and four-color—printed in The Star on the same subject, but float-fishing on Arkansas' White River was never more beautifully presented than in the March issue of Scene, pictorial magazine of the St. Louis headquarters of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

"Floating in Luxury" is the title of a four-page section in full color, with emphasis on pictures and few words. The telephone company's cameraman took the same stretch of river that our editor followed with L. Carter Johnson of Hope in August 1966—the area just below Bull Shoals Dam.

We put in at Cotter, Ark., 11 miles west of our overnight headquarters at Mountain Home, and wound up a one-day float at Buffalo City, population zero. I gather that the telephone photographer flew to Bull Shoals and floated the river just north of our beginning point at Cotter, which is 15 miles below the dam. He didn't get the canyon shots that we did near the end of our trip to Buffalo City—but he did come home with a picture we thought about but missed... a fishing boat wandering downstream dream-like in a shroud of early-morning fog.

You always have a fog on White River just below Bull Shoals from dawn until the sun burns it away about 9 a.m. This is the result of water escaping from Bull Shoals at 50 degrees colliding with the hot air of an Arkansas summer.

I recognized the possibilities of a fog shot on the sleeping river struck by dawn—but there wasn't another boat in sight the morning Johnson and I went out with our guide, Bob Hurst of Hurst Fishing Service, Cotter, Ark.

And fog is a pretty blank subject without a contrasting object such as a boat. Apparently the St. Louis operator had the foresight to arrange in advance for a boat "target"—something I won't forget the next time I go float-fishing, and, you candepend on it, I will go.

Super Jet Is Feared Lost in SE Asia

WASHINGTON (AP)—One of the United States' controversial F-111 fighters is overdue on a bombing mission in Southeast Asia and presumably lost, it was learned today.

A squadron of the 1500-mile-an-hour F-111s arrived in Thailand March 17.

The supersonic, swing-wing fighters cost several million dollars each.

Sources said the F-111 and its two-man crew was en route from Thailand to a bombing mission over North Vietnam Wednesday. The plane has not been heard from since.

It was understood the last radio transmission from the crew came while the plane was over Laos, which lies between Thailand and North Vietnam.

Search operations have turned up no trace of the fighter-bomber.

Sources indicated the Pentagon had no word on what may have happened to the F-111.

Kennedy in First Primary

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sen. Robert F. Kennedy enters his first presidential primary today—Indiana's—and politicking is heavy in Wisconsin where the primary is only five days away.

Kennedy reached the decision in Utah Wednesday to enter Indiana's May 7 primary. He flies to Indianapolis tonight to file, making stops for campaign speeches along the way.

The New York senator's entry will make Indiana the first official battleground between Kennedy and rival anti-Vietnam war policy candidate Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

A stand-in for President Johnson, Indiana Gov. Roger D. Branigin, also is in the ballot.

Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon went on the Indiana ballot Wednesday. He'll be the only Republican on the ballot if no others meet the midnight deadline tonight.

In Wisconsin, meanwhile, Nixon, McCarthy, Republican Harold Stassen and a host of administration officials backing Johnson are making final campaign drives for the vote next Tuesday.

California Gov. Ronald Reagan also is on the ballot. He says he's not a presidential candidate but his Wisconsin backers are pressing for a Reagan vote.

Nixon announced he is preparing a major statement for broadcast Sunday on the Vietnam war and "the problem of diplomacy at the highest levels involving the Soviet Union."

The former vice president told newsmen: "Over a period of time, I've probably been the administration's most consistent critic. This speech will be along those lines."

McCarthy resumes his Wisconsin campaign after a fund-raising trip to Chicago Wednesday.

He told businessmen there that if the Vietnam war continues to escalate the nation will have to plan for credit, price and wage controls.

School Group to Organize

FOREMAN, Ark. (AP)—State Rep. Marion H. Crank of Foreman said Wednesday a citizens committee to develop a state-aid school distribution formula will organize next Wednesday to work with the Legislative Council.

Tired of All Americans Who Feel the Need to Apologize for Living

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Curbstone comments of a pavement Plato:

I am tired of the hangdog American. The hangdog American is a guy who lives in the greatest country on earth and feels he has to apologize for his own existence.

There is no longer much danger of the average American bragging himself to death. He is more likely to wither on the vine from unnecessary guilt.

It is hard today to name a thing that doesn't afflict the typical American with a sense of being in the wrong.

If he is over 40, he feels guilty because he isn't younger.

If he has children and can't give them everything they ask for, he feels he is letting them down. If they turn out badly, he is sure it must be his fault, not theirs.

He feels guilty if his wife has to wear a cloth coat instead of a fur one, or if the refrigerator in her kitchen is more than 10 years old.

If the opera bores him, he feels he is a musically illiterate boob, because everyone is supposed to be cultured today and enjoy opera, whether he likes it or not.

If he is 10 pounds overweight, he feels guilty because he reads that half the people in the world go hungry overnight.

If he goes to war—and he does—he feels guilty because his enemies fight back and his unfaithful allies don't rush to his

Grave Digging Probe Indicates Murder But All Involved Are Dead

March Ends With Riots, Looting

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A march led by Martin Luther King ended abruptly today after hundreds of Negro demonstrators got out of hand and began looting stores and breaking windows on downtown streets.

Police opened fire with tear gas in an effort to disperse the crowd. One policeman was severely beaten by Negro youths when he tried to stop them while they were looting a store.

World's First Space Man Is Killed

MOSCOW (AP)—Handsome Soviet cosmonaut Yuri A. Gagarin, who flew the world's first manned space mission in April 1961, died in a training-flight crash Wednesday.

The crash also killed Col. Vladimir S. Seryogin, commander of an air unit and a member of the space backup team. The ashes of both Gagarin and Seryogin will be placed in the most honorable spot in the Soviet Union, the Kremlin Wall facing Red Square.

The news that the 34-year-old Soviet hero was dead plainly saddened many Russians. One radio announcer repeated the official report several times with deep emotion. The announcements were interspersed with slow funeral music from Tchaikovsky and Scriabin.

No details were given about the crash.

Gagarin's death was the second tragedy known to have hit the Soviet space program within a year. Last April 24 Col. Vladimir M. Komarov was killed when his Soyuz spacecraft crashed to earth.

Six U.S. astronauts have died in the line of duty.

Gagarin opened the book on manned space flight on April 12, 1961, when he shot skyward in his Vostok space capsule and orbited the earth once. The trip lasted 108 minutes and Gagarin landed apart from the capsule by parachuting to earth near the village of Smolovki.

Filing the petitions were Richard Charlie Hooten, who is serving 21 years for second-degree murder; Clayton Woods, who is serving five years for possessing stolen property; Harold Kimble, who is serving five years for assault with intent to kill; and Floyd Bailey, who is serving three years for possessing marijuana.

That is the worst thing that can happen to any man—to lose faith in himself. And that is what is happening to the hangdog American.

American Losses Last Week 349

SAIGON (AP)—The number of Americans and South Vietnamese killed in the Vietnam war edged up slightly last week, the two communist reported today, the number of enemy reported slain dropped.

U.S. Command said 349 Americans were killed in action in the seven-day period ending at midnight Saturday as compared with 336 the previous week. There were 1,965 Americans wounded last week, also up slightly from the 1,916 a week earlier. Of the 1,965 wounded last week, 985 did not require hospitalization, U.S. spokesman said.

South Vietnamese headquarters said 270 government troops were killed last week, three more than the 267 reported killed a week previously. The number of wounded was down to 670 as compared with 932 in the earlier reporting period, and the number of missing was put at 49 as compared with 186 in the previous week.

The U.S. Command said 2,223 enemy were killed by allied forces last week. The South Vietnamese command put the total enemy killed at 3,428. Reports from the two commands often vary, and U.S. spokesmen noted that the enemy killed total was "subject to readjustment."

By the end of 1967 claimed enemy losses for eight years stood

Henderson Choir to Sing Here

The thirty-voice Concert Choir from Henderson State College, Arkadelphia, will present a concert of vocal music in the Hope High School auditorium on Monday night, April 1, 7:30 O'clock.

This is a selected group from Henderson's Choral Union of 150 voices, and is directed by Prof. Eugene Kuyper, a recognized choral director, who has taught voice and directed choral groups at Henderson for some 14 years. The choir is a new performing group this year and is composed mostly of students majoring in music. Though most of the group are Arkansians, three are from Iowa and one from Texas.

This program is the first in a fine arts series of three being given in Hope by Henderson State College, with the support of government funds. The remainder of the series consists of a play on April 22, and an opera on May 15.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassador Robert W. Komer says the Viet Cong dealt pacification a real setback with their February assault on South Vietnam's cities—but he predicts Saigon will recoup its losses faster than the enemy will.

In a cabled response from Saigon to questions from The Associated Press, Komer summed up the status of "the other war" since the massive lunar new year enemy offensive this way: "Pacification is still alive and kicking, despite the early tendency of many to pronounce it dead. It now seems clear that those who counted out pacification in the immediate aftermath of the Tet offensive were overreacting and speaking prematurely before the returns were in."

"We unquestionably suffered a real setback—especially tragic in terms of innocent civilian losses—but the enemy suffered grievous losses, too."

Enemy War Dead Now Totals 320,129, U.S. Death Toll 20,096

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—During Gen. William C. Westmoreland's tenure in South Vietnam the allies have reported killing 320,129 of the enemy—124,500 more than the enemy was said to have in the country when Westmoreland took over.

Enemy forces at the end of 1964 when Westmoreland took over were estimated at 128,500. The top Viet Cong and North Vietnamese strength in the South currently is listed as 248,000.

Most enemy deaths have occurred the past two years when Hanoi, like Washington, was escalating its manpower commitment in the South.

Westmoreland, due to return to Washington as Army chief of staff by July 2, assumed command of the U.S. war effort in August 1964.

As of July 1, 1964, enemy death totals going back through 1960 stood at 67,080. This figure, it should be noted, generally consisted of South Vietnamese casualty claims. The United States later began its own count.

By the end of 1967 claimed enemy losses for eight years stood

Jets Pound Red Supply Centers

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP)—U.S. Air Force B52 jet bombers pounded North Vietnamese supply depots and command centers in the A Shau Valley west of Hue today with hundreds of tons of high explosives in an effort to blunt a new enemy buildup threatening the former imperial capital.

Thirty-five eight-engine Stratofortresses flew five separate missions against the valley, 50 miles west of Hue, raining nearly 2 million pounds of bombs on the North Vietnamese positions.

The bombers, flying at more than 20,000 feet and unseen from the ground, mounted three raids Wednesday afternoon on truck parks, gun positions, bunkers and storage depots in the valley. They returned this morning for two more missions.

During the same period, the B52s flew two missions against North Vietnamese ammunition depots and troop concentrations around Khe Sanh. For the third consecutive day, Marines at Khe Sanh reported a relatively light shelling, fewer than 100 rounds. Marine casualties were reported as light.

The B52s have been averaging about five missions a day in support of Khe Sanh.

Russian trucks have been spotted regularly in recent weeks moving from the A Shau Valley toward Hue with ammunition and other war materials.

Lt. Gen. Robert E. Cushman, commander of the northern 1st Corps, said North Vietnamese engineers have rebuilt much of old provincial Route 547 running 40 miles over mountains from the A Shau Valley to Hue.

The valley has served as a massive enemy supply depot on the Ho Chi Minh network of trails from Laos since North Vietnamese troops overran the U.S. Special Forces camp there two years ago.

In early March, the top U.S. commanders in Vietnam predicted the North Vietnamese would strike again at Hue because the Communist command feels it is the invasion gateway along the coastal plains to South Vietnam.

Elsewhere the U.S. command announced that 1,989 Viet Cong have been killed in the biggest allied offensive of the war around Saigon.

Latest reports said an American task force of tanks and infantry killed 99 Viet Cong troops 28 miles northwest of Saigon in two days of fighting in Operation Quiet Thunder—Resolved to Win.

The combined U.S. and South Vietnamese offensive by 50,000 troops was launched 18 days ago in five provinces around Saigon. Its aim is to clear the area of enemy forces and to regain the offensive from the Viet Cong.

American and South Vietnamese forces have lost 178 dead in the operation and are killing 12 enemy soldiers for every allied soldier lost, it is U.S. Command count is correct. This is twice the average American kill ratio of six-to-one.

Many Incidents of Sub-standard Food Sold to the Public

By DECK BARNES
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — After government school lunch inspectors rejected 30,000 pounds of frozen turkey because it had thawed, the turkey was refrozen, thawed again to permit labeling, refrozen once more and sold to supermarkets in New York City.

That incident was one among many turned up by a special House Government Operations subcommittee in an investigation to determine how often sub-standard goods turned back government purchasing agents are peddled to unsuspecting consumers as quality merchandise.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, D-N.Y., will open public hearings on its findings within a month.

A member of the subcommittee stunn said the investigation began after one of Rosenthal's constituents complained about the unusual bitterness of some coffee she had bought at a grocery in Queens.

The subcommittee spokesman said the coffee had been recalled from commissaries after authorities learned it was five years old, the government couldn't return the shipment to the processor; he had gone bankrupt. So it sold the coffee to commercial suppliers, who resold it to retailers without changing the military label.

The subcommittee spokesman refused to identify any of the individuals involved in the investigation, but said they would be summoned to testify.

Among cases to be examined at the hearings are two others involving frozen foodstuffs. The spokesman gave these details:

— The Defense Department rejected 18,563 frozen dinners because their bacteria count was too high. A federal inspector said he wouldn't put the food in his freezer, much less eat it. But the processor salvaged some of his investment. He sold the dinners, at a discount, to his own employees.

— Another 30,000 pounds of frozen turkey, purchased by the Department of Agriculture, had thawed by the time it reached its destination. The department promptly shipped it back to the packer, who just as promptly refroze the meat and sold it again—half to the Defense Department and half to the North Carolina prison system.

An expert at the Agriculture Department said meat which is thawed and then refrozen can be dangerous. Bacteria begins forming as soon as the meat thaws and will survive refreezing, he said.

Subcommittee investigators also uncovered cases involving products other than food, the spokesman said.

The Defense Supply Agency rejected one lot of 450 pairs of trousers because of faulty stitching, tears and machine damage. The trousers later turned up in a Southern California surplus store, still labeled to indicate they met government standards.

"This isn't a hazard," the staff member said. "But it can be an economic loss for a consumer who assumes from the label that these things meet government standards and then has them fall apart."

Brig. Gen. Robert E. Lee, Defense Supply's executive director for procurement and production, said the "fact that something is rejected doesn't mean it isn't any good."

"Our specifications are sometimes much stiffer than commercial ones because of our problems," he said. For exam-

Ruling Made on School Board Seats

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An attorney general's office ruling Wednesday said an incumbent member of the Cabot School Board is entitled to his seat until September does not necessarily apply to incumbents on the Little Rock and North Little Rock Boards who were defeated March 12.

Assistant Atty. Gen. Thomas Glaze also said the controversy over the length of school board members' terms could have been avoided had the governor's call for a special session of the General Assembly had included an act to shorten the terms to comply with the new school election date.

Glaze said the opinion issued for the Cabot board involved an incumbent who did not seek reelection. He said incumbents in both the North Little Rock and Little Rock races may have waived their right to continue on the board when they filed for reelection.

He said, the pockets of a military work uniform must have straight stitching that wouldn't be required for a civilian work shirt.

Lee emphasized a product "doesn't belong to us until we accept it"—meaning, he said, his agency can't control what the processor or manufacturer does with rejects.

He said he had no estimate of what proportion of defense supply purchases are rejected.

Heinz A. Aberseller, commissioner of the Federal Supply Service, said that in the last half of 1967, his agency rejected 2.8 per cent of the goods it ordered, but kept no record of how rejected material is disposed of by suppliers.

The over-all toll as of March 16 stands at 320,129, according to Pentagon figures. There is no breakdown as to Viet Cong versus North Vietnamese losses.

That toll does not include 1,841 Communists U.S. officials report killed so far in the 18-day-old operation to clear enemy troops from the area surrounding Saigon.

The statistics show an improving kill ratio for U.S., South Vietnamese and other allied forces the past four years.

Using the enemy's annual killed total as a percentage of his year-end estimated strength, the figures indicate his losses rose from 13 per cent in 1964 to 14 per cent in 1965, jumped to 20 per cent in 1966 and soared above 30 per cent in 1967.

The killed-strength totals: 1964—16,785 dead, year-end strength 128,500 including 2,500 North Vietnamese; 1965—35,436 dead, year-end strength 231,000 including 25,200 North Vietnamese; 1966—55,524 dead, year-end strength 279,000 including 49,000 North Vietnamese; and 1967—88,104 dead, year-end strength 248,000.

The manpower decline from 1966 resulted primarily because the military command stopped counting thousands of Communist political workers as part of the enemy's armed strength.

The killed versus strength ratios are admittedly imprecise since the enemy's force levels fluctuate through the year and at any one point might have been higher or lower than year-end figures.

Further imprecision also results from the way enemy death totals are calculated.

The Pentagon once claimed that enemy losses were totaled strictly by body count but former Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara acknowledged before leaving office that the tabulation involved "many judgment factors." Often the "body count" is a mere battlefield estimate.

On the American side of the ledger the war has claimed 20,096 U.S. servicemen from Jan. 1, 1961 through last March 16. Other U.S. deaths in the war zone not directly linked with enemy action total 3,555.

She also placed third in a party-planning contest.

Says Pueblo Letters Are Phony

By JERRY BUCK
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Wearing what his wife calls his "go to hell grin," Fireman Michael O'Bannon posed next to a ping pong table somewhere in North Korea with seven fellow captured crewmen of the U.S.S. Pueblo.

The picture and a letter from the Navy man arrived recently at the O'Bannon home in Beaverton, Ore.,—one of a number of such letters coming to crewmen's families and high officials in the United States.

Mrs. O'Bannon thinks the letter is phony. And many other relatives of the Americans who were captured two months ago say that the letters they have received simply do not ring true.

Mrs. O'Bannon said the grin on her husband's face was the one he "always wore when I wanted him to do something he didn't want to do." She said she is pretty sure that the man is her husband and that he's wearing his "go to hell grin."

She said the letter was written in an unnatural style. He refers to her as "My dearest Kay," which she says he never would have written and to his parents as "the family" instead of the usual "Mom and Pop."

The letters to relatives, to President Johnson, and to senators are seen by the State Department as part of a propaganda effort by the North Korean Communists. Many of the letters call on the United States to apologize to North Korea for the activities of the electronic a deputy to the American commander, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, had previously held off a public assessment of the over-all impact of the Tet attacks on his program until more results were in from South Vietnam's 44 provinces.

Following are questions to and replies from Kom-r:

Q. How does 'the other war' stand since the Tet offensive, both in psychological and physical terms?

A. By and large, the 'other war' impact of the Tet offensive now appears to have been more psychological than physical. Despite the tragic losses—some 650,000 Tet evacuees at the high point, about 7,500 civilians killed and 15,500 wounded, around 95,000 homes destroyed or damaged, and extensive damage to business facilities and transport nets—South Vietnam has displayed considerable recuperating power.

Evacuees have now declined to under 400,000, extensive urban rebuilding and resettlement is underway for the homeless, medical facilities have been largely restored, and ample food is available.

Prices are back down near pre-Tet levels, most key roads and waterways have been reopened, and traffic on them is slowly increasing.

However, economic recovery in general has been sluggish as business confidence is only slowly returning. Insecurity and fear of further Viet Cong-North Vietnamese attacks remain key problems in many cities and even more so in the countryside.

In pacification, too, the more serious damage seems psychological rather than physical. While rural pacification unquestionably received a substantial setback, especially in the IV Corps Delta area where over half our losses were suffered, the loss of hamlets and resources has proven much less than earlier feared.

Now that enough time has elapsed to assess these losses carefully, it appears for example that less than 480 small outposts and watchtowers out of about 5,000 were abandoned or overrun—chiefly in the Delta.

surveillance ship.

Mrs. Gerald Nolte of Washington, Iowa, said the letter from her son, Clifford, reads "like he had been forced to copy it from a blackboard."

The handwriting on the letter she got is definitely that of her son, says Mrs. Everett Arnold of Santa Rosa, Calif. But she said the letter from Richard reads as though he would start a sentence—and someone else would finish it.

Mrs. Lyle C. Shingleton of Atoka, Okla., mother of Seaman John Shingleton, does not think her son wrote the two identical letters she received.

One of her clues is the way the letters start: "Dear Mom and Dad." "He always starts out, 'Dear Folks,'" Mrs. Shingleton said.

Like Mrs. O'Bannon, Mrs. Shingleton received a picture. Both photos were turned over to the Navy.

Some of the families contacted by the Associated Press said they were satisfied with government efforts to free their sons. Most were simply confused and anguished. Only two said they thought the United States should apologize.

Officers Are Fined $300

WASHINGTON (AP) — A police trial board Tuesday recommended $300 fines against two District of Columbia policemen charged with firing six shots from their car while driving home from the station house.

The board found the men, Pvt. Thomas Dietrich and Paul M. Angell, along with two others who were in the car but did not do the actual shooting, had been drinking beer and liquor in the station house prior to the incident.

Plan No. 632011

CABIN
Dreaming of your own vacation cabin in the mountains or on the shore of a favorite lake? This plan, designed by the United States Department of Agriculture, is of frame construction, 4 feet square and easily expandable to three bedrooms. You can construct the exterior walls, then finish the interior add on at your convenience. The wall between the living areas and the bedroom is a movable storage wall. The bedroom partitions may be removed or rearranged with a minimum of finishing. Although the working drawings show concrete foundation walls and slab, you may find it more economical to use a wooden floor and masonry, concrete or creosoted pole piers if your site is steeply sloping. Heating for the cabin depends on the season used intended. The plan is well adapted for hot air, hot water or electrical heat. This cabin may also be used as low-cost living quarters while a family constructs a permanent home. Later, it may be converted to a garage. If this cabin meets your needs, you can obtain a copy of the plan (No. 632011) free of charge from the Hempstead County Agricultural Extension Office. The first midnight high mass was heard in the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris.

Bureaucrats Getting Best of Doctor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)— State bureaucracy seems to be getting the best of Dr. John L. Ferguson, director of the Arkansas History Commission, who complained Wednesday about required paper work. "Our staff should be allowed to work at history and genealogy, not required to spend days completing questionnaires and forms for the benefit of other departments of state government," Ferguson wrote. The director said an example was the requirement by the state Administration Department to "itemize and justify" all our expenditures since 1964. Consultant Clarence "Mike" Forst of the Administration Department said all agency directors had "administrative and fiscal responsibility," including Ferguson, who he said was among the first to complete and submit replies to the questionnaire. Forst has asked all state departments for a list of their expenditures to prepare information for the special legislative session planned for May. The wood duck is considered the most beautiful of our waterfowl.

Oswald Jacoby will take over today's column to write about an old friend.

Sidney B. Fink of Cleveland died suddenly last December. He was doing what he liked best at the time — playing duplicate bridge.

Sidney was about my age and in the '30s was one of my toughest opponents. We never played together but were always good friends. It didn't require much effort on my part. Sid was nice to everybody, and everybody liked him.

The last several years he served as chairman of the A.C.B.L. charity committee and played in very few events, but whenever he did play he made the game more pleasant for everyone.

Here is a hand he played a few days before his death. The bidding was optimistic and the contract not the best, but the older we get the more we like to bid, and Sid never was an underbidder, even in his youth.

East won the first trick with the ace of clubs after Sid played low from dummy. If East had returned a club it would have been impossible to bring the slam home, but East led back the jack of diamonds.

Sid ruffed and proceeded to run off all his trumps. The third trump lead didn't bother West. He let the eight of diamonds go, but the fourth trump put him in a vise. He couldn't throw the ace of diamonds, he was sure he couldn't afford a spade, and the best play appeared to be a low club.

Sidney led his deuce of clubs (he had been careful to drop the jack on the first club lead), finessed dummy's ten and the king dropped West's queen. On the seven of clubs play West must discard either the ace of diamonds or a spade, and the hand is made. (Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

You, South, hold:
♠ A K Q J 9 7 6 ♡ A K 5 2 ♦ 7 4 4

What do you do now?
A—Bid seven spades. Your partner's five no-trump bid asks for kings and also guarantees that your side has all the aces. He is trying to get to seven without knowing if your spades are solid.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding three clubs, your partner raises you to three spades. What do you do now?

Complaints Over Exhibit Adjusted

LITTLE ROCK (AP)— Nearly all the complaints about the state's exhibit at HemisFair in San Antonio, Tex., have been adjusted, Lou Oberste, assistant director of the Arkansas Publicity and Parks Commission, said Wednesday.

He said he had not personally seen the exhibit, but that he had talked by telephone with commission Director Bob Evans, who has been in San Antonio more than a week supervising changes.

A group of Arkansas businessmen who visited the exhibit two weeks ago was critical of the esthetics of the exhibit. Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller also was critical of it.

First Ascent

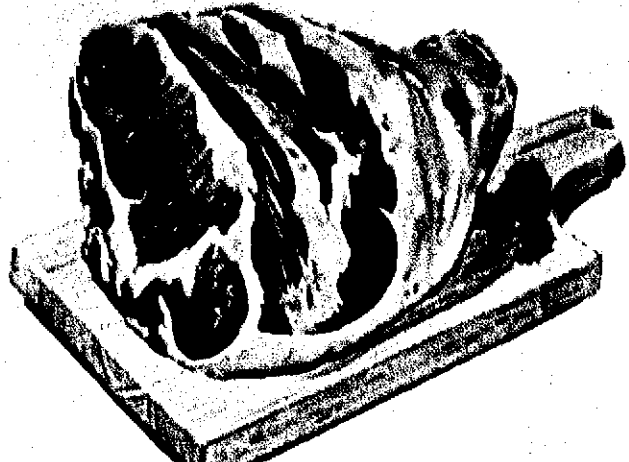

The first successful ascent of Pike's Peak was not made until 1820, 14 years after Zebulon Pike first saw it. Pike himself never climbed the mountain.
